Enhanced Flexibility in the Supply Chain

The primary focus of this project is to bring increased flexibility to our operations, enabling us to respond swiftly to market fluctuations and evolving customer demands.

Through the implementation of process improvements, design flexibility, and cutting-edge technologies, the Rotterdam plant will be equipped with state-of-the-art infrastructure. These enhancements will enable Almatris to operate at peak efficiency, optimize resource utilization, and deliver products that adhere to the highest quality standards.

Reaffirming our position as your Trusted Partner in Specialty Alumina

Almatris attributes its success as a reliable specialty alumina supplier to the dedication and hard work of its global teams. Their unwavering commitment to excellence has reinforced our position as a trusted partner in the industry. Almatris takes great pride in having a team that consistently goes above and beyond to deliver outstanding results to our valued customers.

Project Completion in 2024

Almatris invites industry stakeholders and customers alike to stay tuned for updates and progress on this exciting project. The Rotterdam Operations team, together with our valued customers, will continue to drive innovation, process improvement, and customer-centricity, setting new industry standards. We anticipate the completion of this project in 2024 and are confident that it will elevate our operations to new heights.

"We are delighted to embark on this transformative journey to enhance our operations in Rotterdam," said Anil Sönmez, Chief Executive Officer at Almatris. "This investment demonstrates our unwavering commitment to providing our customers with the highest quality specialty alumina products while also reinforcing our position as a trusted partner in the industry."
